A baby boy was one of three people killed and others injured when a parked car exploded outside a home in the West Vancouver suburb of Mill Bay late Sunday morning. RCMP said the four victims, all adults, died after the auto containing an explosive device detonated at 11:44 a.m. PT as people were outside a house in the 13400 block of Brentwood Way. In a statement, police said there was nothing to suggest the incident was terrorism-related. The investigation into what type of explosive device was used is continuing. Firefighters responded to the scene and found a woman who had been injured and taken to hospital in serious condition. As the area was being cleared, police found three men dead inside the vehicle. A short time later, police discovered a woman who was critically injured inside the same vehicle. She was taken to hospital in life-threatening condition. Police said the woman and the three men appeared to have all been in the same vehicle and that they may have died from the injuries sustained in the collision. Police say they do not believe anyone inside the home was injured by the explosion. Police said the four victims did not know each other and none were known to the occupants of the house where the and distribution of perioral soft tissue disorders in the US, NL, JP, and SK were obtained from a survey of health professionals in each country. The frequency of perioral soft tissue disorders was significantly higher in the US and NL than in the SK (p

What's New In?

A new York's Fire department, one of the most well known service in the city is now under fire for allegedly having a sexist dress code. The department has come under fire for a code that forbid women from wearing short skirts, midriffs or dresses that are not fitted enough. The department has come under fire after a video surfaced showing how firefighters in their seventies and eighties can't be seen with their suit pants only tightly pulled over their 6-pack abs. The code even goes into great detail about the length of women's skirts and how they should be tied. They also have to wear closed toe shoes and chunky belts. Scroll down for video NYC firemen and women were photographed in an all white uniform during a fire fighters convention last year A video circulated on social media showing women being photographed at a convention for fire fighters wearing an unbuttoned white shirt, no pants and black boots The Public Advocate Letitia James criticized the department for its sexist dress code, saying that it showed a lack of gender equity The Public Advocate Letitia James criticized the department for its sexist dress code, saying that it showed a lack of gender equity. She said: 'It sends a signal to young women that their value in this society is merely determined by the length of their skirt or whether they are wearing high heels. 'And it sends a message to young men that their value is determined by the length of their pants or whether they are wearing shoes with laces.' The department has also come under fire over its 'hide your tattoos' policy. Some people expressed anger over the uniforms showing up at concerts and sporting events. The department has also come under fire over its 'hide your tattoos' policy. John Chegwidan, president of the Uniformed Firefighter's

Association, said: 'I'd have to say the jackets the department issues aren't made for a lot of people, and don't conform to a lot of people's bodies. 'So we don't know what a lot of women or transgenders are going to wear. It doesn't make much sense.' The firefighters union said that firefighters are sworn to protect the public and care for the sick and injured, and that a uniform represents a higher calling. A spokesman said the department has a workforce in the tens of thousands and has implemented a dress code in an effort to be inclusive.
