padakpack â€º Blog â€º how to connect a shock sensor for car alarm. Useful if the alarm does not work correctly or does not work at all. A 3-wire cable is required for connection. It is needed to work with shock and tilt sensors. The shock sensor itself can be connected to the wiring behind the glove box. The tilt or tilt sensor on the frame must be connected to the wiring behind the headlights or under the hood. The tilt sensor is connected to the standard wiring that comes from the alarm button.

Dude, I couldn't find any other place that I could post in. That was my place. I edited it to put a new link in. in'ish, you didn't need to edit it. I didn't even know there was another way to do it. Here is the direct link to the original post and the edited one. Go to the Editor in the home menu and click on the "Text and Images" tab. There is a link that says "Choose" that will allow you to post directly in this forum. You are welcome, but I'm glad to see there is a new direct link. I didn't know I could do that. I did feel bad after finding that new link. Now I'll have to find it again for the next time. Thanks, Spazz. in'ish, 8ball_indiana is too polite, when you feel bad, then he should say thanks, and not just complain to no one in particular. Have you ever offended anybody else, that did something helpful for you? It's ok to say thanks. If the moderators dont like it, then just let that stuff slide, as they are the people that will eventually decide to delete it. Q: How do I start taking action on my beliefs? A: Get some good books and start reading. Try starting with "How to Think Like a Christian": It will change your life if you let it. Q: Is there anything wrong with feeling like I don't have enough, and not getting enough? A: I don't think I can say that's wrong. There is a verse in the Bible I read this morning. It was something I hadn't read this morning, and I have it on my iPad. It said "Fear not, for I am with you." Well, that is a relief. I'm glad I did not do that. I really hope I can't ever feel that way again. In 'our god (Dennis, J. 2012. Introduction to a Science of God. Unfield, UK: Penguin c6a93da74d
